

CrisisAlert™

“HOW CAN I SECURE MY SPACE, PROTECT MY EMPLOYEES AND PRESERVE THE CLIENT APPEAL?”

BUSINESS SAFETY: DISCREET, PROMPT INCIDENT RESPONSE IS NEEDED NOW MORE THAN EVER

No manager can predict when workplace violence or harassment will take place, but everyone must be ready to respond when an incident occurs. No matter where a crisis arises, your employees need the means to act effectively, quickly and discreetly – without compromising the safety of themselves, others or the customer experience. An employee needs to feel confident that if they are involved in an incident, they can immediately send for help. Likewise, management must be equipped to direct help where it is needed – easily and immediately – because during a violent workplace incident, every second matters.

CENTEGIX™ CrisisAlert™: INCIDENT RESPONSE. ANYTIME. EVERYWHERE.

With employees in mind, we designed a solution that sends requests for help to key personnel instantly, with precise location information. Every staff member receives a smart CrisisAlert badge, which empowers them to quickly and discreetly activate an alert. The moment an alert is triggered, CrisisAlert immediately provides clear and critical information to all impacted personnel. Its features include:

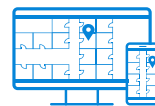

RETAIL

industry experiences the third-highest workplace violence victimization rate.¹
